What can I do now?

Sources of Financial Aid

Sources of Financial Aid

Federal, State and Private funds designed to assist families in meeting higher education expenses. It is not a guarantee that education costs are covered in full.

Examples of aid programs –

- Pell Grant
- FSEOG
- Federal Work Study
- Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loans
- HOPE/Zell Miller Scholarships
- Institutional Scholarships
- Private outside scholarships

Sources of Financial Aid – where to apply

Federal aid programs – 2022-23 FAFSA

HOPE/Zell Miller Grants and Scholarships – 2022-23 FAFSA or GSFAPPS

Institutional Scholarships – specific scholarship process at colleges (some have early deadlines)

Outside private scholarships – application process for each scholarship

Sources of Financial Aid

Most federal aid programs are need based. This means that family income/assets are part of the determining formula.

Scholarship programs are merit based meaning that GPA and test scores are considered in determining eligibility.

Every student does not qualify for every type of aid. Award offers are individual to the student, their unique eligibility and funds available.

Sources of Financial Aid – HOPE/Zell Miller

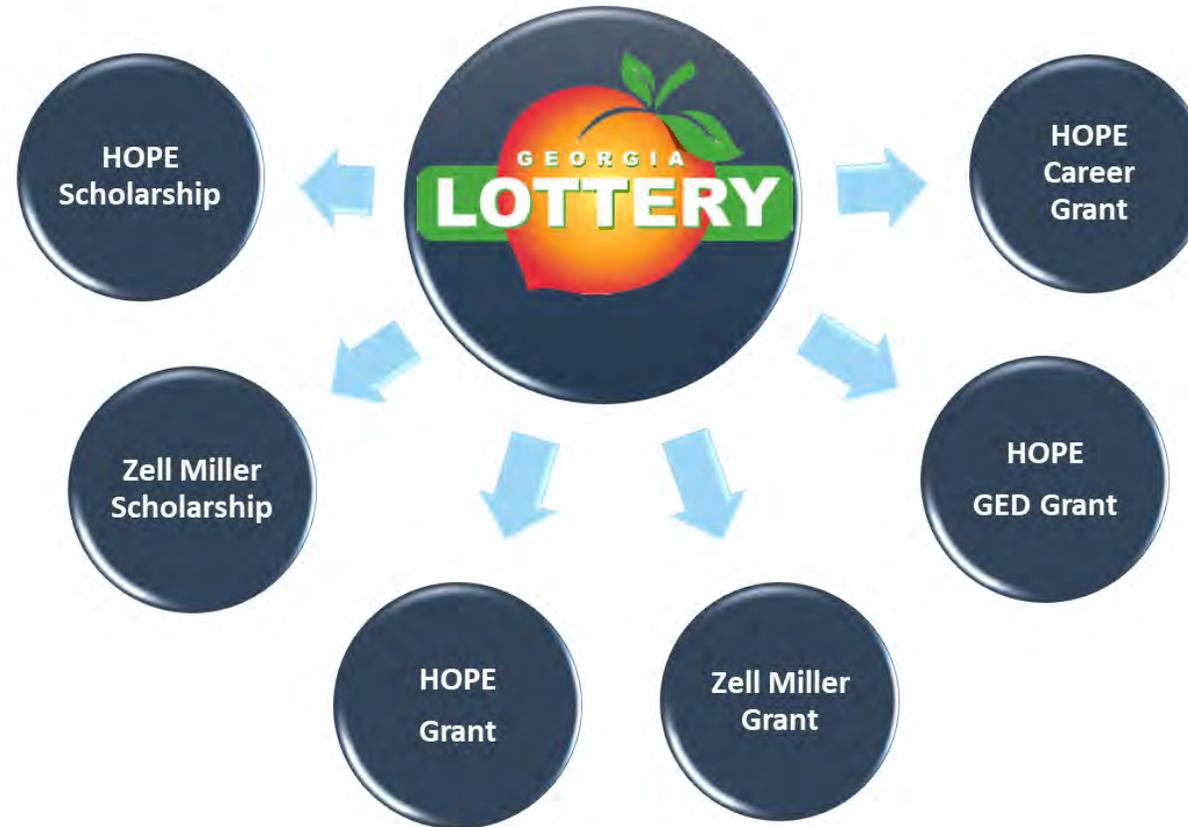

HOPE/Zell Miller

- Grants are for diploma and certificate programs at Technical Colleges.
- Scholarships are for degree programs at colleges.
- The eligibility criteria is different for grants vs. scholarships.
- Eligibility is for HOPE or Zell Miller, but not both at the same time.
- Zell Miller Scholarship eligibility has to be attained at the end of high school.
- HOPE Scholarship eligibility can be achieved in college if not eligible out of high school.
- State programs require registration with Selective Service.

WELCOME to the GSFAPPS - the primary means for applying for most scholarships, grants, or service-cancelable loan programs administered by the Georgia Student Finance Commission (GSFC). GSFAPPS has been carefully designed to permit an applicant to quickly and accurately complete an application electronically, in a secure mode, and to receive immediate confirmation that the application has been received by GSFC for further processing. An applicant can also print out a copy of the application they submitted for their records. The instructions are easy to follow, and the System provides help menus throughout to guide completion of the application.

OPTIONS. If you decide not to apply electronically, you can download and print a paper application from GAutures web site, call the Commission at 800-505-GSFC, or visit your Financial Aid Office. Remember, submitting your application online via GSFAPPS ensures your application has been completed correctly, and, assuming you meet the eligibility requirements, speeds up the approval process. If you are visually impaired, you can call the Commission at 800-505-GSFC to get assistance in completing your application.

CONDITIONS. You must have already established an account and completed your profile in GAutures and be logged onto that website. If you need to establish an account and complete your profile in GAutures, click here and click Create an Account.

INSTRUCTIONS. If you would like a tutorial on how to use GSFAPPS, click GSFApps Tutorial.
