

“Parents Engaging in Education”

For Parents of Students Receiving Special Education Services in Gwinnett County Public Schools

Presented by: Dawn Albanese – GCPS Parent Mentor

This workshop is highly recommended for parents of students at all levels (elementary, middle, and high school). “Parents Engaging in Education” is a four-session workshop that aims to nurture and develop engaged parents, by helping them to positively support their child’s academic success.

In this workshop, we will discuss:

- The IEP process
- The components of the IEP.
- Your role as a member of the IEP Team.
- The Effective Communication Skills needed to help build collaborative relationships.

To receive full benefit from this workshop, participants are encouraged to attend ALL four sessions.

Dates: 9/28/23, 10/12/23, 10/26/23, and 11/9/23

Parents may choose either an in person or virtual session to attend
